

Organized/Good with managing people

- President (Exec Board) The CSC President must be a member in good standing and presides over general membership and board meetings, establishes policies and procedures and ensures the Bylaws are upheld. The President is responsible for appointing all committee chairs on the General Board and serves as a representative of CSC within the community. In this position, it is essential to delegate and supervise all CSC events and ensure all committee chairs are fulfilling their duties/responsibilities. The President fills vacancies occurring in any of the board positions and provides immediate oversight for the committees.
- Scholarship (chair and committee) Recruit a scholarship committee to organize the application and selection process. Determine the criteria for the selection of scholarship recipients. Plan the award ceremony. Coordinate the disbursement of scholarship funds w/ the Treasurer and Gaming Treasurer.
- Welfare (chair and committee) Establish a committee whose responsibility is to make recommendations for worthy welfare donation recipients. Coordinate w/ Treasurer to ensure approved welfare expenditures are disbursed.
- Bazaar (chair and committee) Be responsible for planning an annual event to help meet the fiscal budget of the Club. Establish a committee to plan and execute the event. Present a proposal to the board at the August meeting.